

DEPARTMENT OF WOMEN'S, GENDER, AND SEXUALITY STUDIES

PHD PROGRAM

APPENDIX I: STUDENT TIMELINE AND CHECKLIST

YEAR ONE

- JPE 600 at LGS Orientation
- Full-time coursework, both semesters
- Research Assistantship (RA) in spring
- LGS TATT 600 Workshop in summer after year 1

YEAR TWO

- Full-time coursework, both semesters
- (2) TATT 605 Teaching Assistantship (TA) (WGS100 & WGS 205)
- WGS 720R (TATTO course) in spring
- Select advisor and committee by the end of year 2 and submit the form to GPC (Appendix III) by end of Spring Term.
- Ensure that language requirement has been completed

YEAR THREE

- WGS 710 Research Design
- Teach WGS 200 | (TATT 610) Teaching Associateship in fall & spring
- Complete oral and written exams by December
Submit Comprehensive Examination Completion Form (Appendix IV)
- Submit a copy of the reading lists to the Graduate Program Coordinator immediately following the exams
- Complete interdisciplinary concentration and methods course requirement
- Submit Prospectus Approval Form (Appendix V) along with a copy of the prospectus before scheduling the prospectus oral defense
- Complete and defend prospectus in the Spring

YEAR FOUR

- Advance to candidacy - Submit LGS Candidacy Signature Form by September 15 at the start of their fourth year.
- Ensure that all LGS TATTO requirements have been met: TATT 600 (1) | TATT 605(2) | TATT 610 (2)
- Submit LGS online Dissertation Committee Signature Form by March 15

YEAR FIVE

- Full time dissertation work
- Ensure that all LGS JPE requirements have been met: (4) JPE 610 Workshops

FINAL STEPS

- Defend Dissertation
- Complete LGS application for Degree Forms