In honor of National Women's History Month
the Center for Women presents

Margaret Edson
Pulitzer Prize-winning author of Wit

Margaret Edson was born in Washington, DC in 1961. Between earning degrees in history and literature, she worked in the oncology and AIDS inpatient unit of a major research hospital. Wit, her first and only play, was written in 1991. It was universally and soundly rejected, then produced by the South Coast Repertory in Costa Mesa, CA, in 1995. It opened in New York -- in a 90-seat theater -- in 1998, and was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for Drama in 1999. Wit has received hundreds of productions in dozens of languages. The 2001 HBO production won the Emmy Award for best film. This is Ms. Edson's fourteenth year teaching; she currently teaches kindergarten at John Hope Elementary School. She will speak on "RANDOM, SENSELESS ACTS."

Wednesday, March 29, 2006
7:30 p.m.
Cannon Chapel

Reception and book signing to follow in Brooks Commons

Co-sponsored by Department of Women's Studies Jessica Glasser Memorial Lecture, HighTower Lecture Fund, Graduate School of Arts & Sciences, Office of Lesbian Gay Bisexual and Transgender Life, President's Commission on the Status of Women, Friends of the Emory University Libraries, Department of Theater Studies, and Creative Writing Program

Book signing by CHARIS: Books and More

For more information, call 404-727-2001 or email lfl00k@emory.edu.
For a complete calendar of Women's History Month events, go to www.womenscenter.emory.edu.